Welcome to Mount Sunapee Resort located in Mount Sunapee State Park. Encompassing over 2,900 acres, the spacious park includes three mountains, a small lake and many brooks scattered throughout the woodlands. A variety of wildlife can be found in the park, including deer, red fox, coyote, snowshoe hare, porcupines, wild turkeys, ruffed grouse and hawks. Occasionally black bear, moose, bobcats and fisher feed in the area. Picnicking and hiking are popular summer activities. In the winter Mount Sunapee Resort is a major New England ski area that offers 65 trails, 97% snowmaking and 11 lifts to accommodate skiers of all abilities.

Hiking Tips & Information

The summit of Mount Sunapee, elevation 2,745 feet, is reached via ski trails or the Summit hiking trail. A number of additional hiking trails are accessible from the summit. For your safety be sure to be properly prepared when hiking. Remember:

Hiking Trails

Summit Trail: (red paint blaze, plus state-authorized SRK plastic blazes) The 2 mile trail begins on right (looking uphill) side of Lower Ridge (ski) Trail. Please note that at the ¼ mile point the trail is joined by the SRK (Sunapee, Ragged, Kearsarge) Greenway Trail and both continue LEFT on the same route to Mount Sunapee's summit.

Solitude Trail : (white paint blaze) starts east of the summit. The distance to White Ledges, which overlooks Lake Solitude, is approximately one mile. Lake Solitude, a beautiful and popular day hike destination, is a .6 mile hike from the overlook.

Newbury Trail: (orange paint blaze) is a 2-mile trail, which continues from Solitude Trail and does not return to the ski area base. The trailhead is near the southern end of Lake Sunapee off route 103 in the village of Newbury, approximately 3 miles from the park.

Rim Trail: (yellow paint blaze) is a .9 mile trail that connects the base of the Sun Bowl Chairlift to the midway point of the Newbury Trail.

Eagles Nest: (red paint blaze) is an overlook reached by a short trail off the lower portion of the Newbury Trail. It affords an excellent view of Newbury Harbor and Lake Sunapee.

Andrew Brook Trail: (blue paint blaze) is a 6.5 mile trail which ascends Mount Sunapee on its quiet southeastern slopes. Trail head can be found off of Mountain Road, south of Newbury Harbor off of Route 103.

Have a pleasant hike!
